

NOW SERIES

The "Now" series is an invitation to enjoy the moment. Each wine in this collection captures a value that is fundamental to the Ochoa family: resilience, tradition, honesty, the celebration of friendship, or the quest of joy.

CRIANZA ORIGEN 2022

FRIENDSHIP is a valuable gift. Adriano, our grandfather, acknowledged this by creating a special wine for his friends each year. This tradition led to the making of this wine, intended for you to share with your chosen family.

Grape variety:
Tempranillo, Garnacha,
Merlot y Graciano.

ABV:
13,5%

Winemaking

A blend of red varieties from different estates. The musts ferment separately with our own yeasts and then the wines age in used 225L American and French oak barrels for 9 months. Each variety brings something different to the blend. Fruit, color, freshness... Each variety and its personality build well-matched group. Like in real life people do.

Tasting

To the eye it shows a bright deep cherry color, being the nose reminiscent of blueberries and ripe blackberries along with spices such as cloves, anise and cinnamon. You will also find a touch of cocoa and coffee. On the palate, the fruit and roasted spice combination aligns with good acidity and a vibrant finish.

Pairing

This crianza is fun, a very versatile wine; great to enjoy with casual food such as Tapas or nibbles and pork dishes. Great for barbecues or even as a counterpoint to hearty stews and roasted meats.

Shall I open it or save it?

This crianza has 5 years left to be enjoyed with its personality intact, although in certain vintages it can even be kept for a couple more years.

Available in box of 6 bottles of 75cl.
