

HERE SERIES

The "HERE" series connects us to our place in the world: the vineyard. Each wine in this collection comes from a specific plot and a single variety. These wines represent values that reflect the deep bond between wine, land, and family.

LABRIT BLANCO

2024

This white wine is born to fill a space in our family story, which was waiting to be named. Like the ball that goes back and forth, to the fronton, a Basque hand ball court. This centenarian vineyard comes back again to Ochoa, to its origin, to our hands. For us, this white embodies a pure RECONNECTION with the past, filling the glass with serenity and gratitude.

Winemaking

After 24 hours of skin contact maceration, the wine ferments in stainless steel tanks at temperatures between 18 and 20°C using indigenous yeasts. Over 12 months, half of the wine ages in large wooden foudres, while the other half evolves in concrete tanks.

Tasting

Aromas of ripe white fruit, especially pear, citrus and Mediterranean herbs, with subtle floral and mineral notes. On the palate it is fresh and well-structured, with good roundness, balance and a slightly salty finish.

Pairing

Ideal with fish and seafood, white meats and vegetable-based dishes, as well as soft and semi-cured cheeses. Its freshness and acidity also make it a great match for spicy food.

Shall I open it or save it?

Enjoyable and fresh in its youth, this wine is also designed to evolve over time. Cellaring a bottle for 3 to 5 years will reveal surprising new aromas and flavours.

Available in box of 6 bottles of 75cl.
